Anyone Else but You: Best Friends Romance Anne Thomas

Matt and Evie are convinced that their friendship will last forever. However, they didn't count on falling for each other and all it takes is just one moment to change the course of their life.

"You are always trying to keep it real, I'm in love with how you feel. I don't see what anyone can see, in Anyone Else But You." - Evie

"What is your problem?" she snapped at him as he sped through the parking lot. A few students jumped out of the car's pathway and Evie wondered what was possessing him.

"I don't have problem," Matt snapped back and turned onto one of the side streets. They sped through the neighborhood and Evie wished that he would just slow down.

"Clearly," she mocked and buckled her seatbelt. Evie watched as houses flew by and decided to leave him alone with his thoughts, at least for the moment.
