If you're not in rapport with someone, then you don't have that much needed connection. Rapport is more than just being nice and presenting yourself as someone honest and reputable. Rapport is a deep unconscious connection that takes a new relationship and instantly felt is this relationship that's been around forever. It's a deeper type of connection that makes people feel like they've always been friends, always known each other, and will always know each other. Rapport has many advantages. To sell someone something there needs to be some level of rapport present, first. To negotiate, there has to be some rapport in place. This book not only teaches you how to build the type of rapport I'm speaking of, but it also programs you to always be in rapport with others. You'll be the most likeable person to everyone you meet, and people will want to get to know you. They will beg you to finish your conversations with them, and they will love you, for you! Grab a copy of this book. It will change your life.
