Excerpt from Pilgrims and Puritans: The Story of the Planting of Plymouth and Boston

The story of the settlement of Plymouth, told by Bradford and Winslow, and that of Boston, found in Winthrop's Journal, have the unfailing charm of personal narrative and the value accorded to all first sources of history. To present the substance of these stories in a setting which shall bring them within the comprehension of young readers, and with such maps and notes as may prove useful in the schoolroom, is the purpose of this little volume.
