Amazon Merchants that want profitable growth need to make decisions on how, what and where goods will be sourced. Our experience has proven that you can learn the processes and execute the steps to implement a sourcing, importing and branding strategy. Using the right approach and informational tools, you will open the door to options that will set you apart and put you ahead of the millions of other Amazon sellers. There is not a single element that will have a more positive impact as an Amazon merchant than implementing a plan to evaluate, source and private label your own brands from China. Learning and developing the skills to have reliable sources of products that you control from beginning to end and can purchase ongoing is invaluable.
