Tribal Communities and Social Change (Themes in Indian Sociology, Vol. 5) (Themes in Indian Sociology series)

Tribal Communities and Social Change (Themes in Indian Sociology, Vol. 5) (Themes in Indian Sociology series)

In this volume, renowned scholars examine a diverse range of tribal groups including: the Bhils, Gonds, Khasis and Koyas in India; the aboriginal Indians, Metis and Innuits in Canada; and tribal cultures in South Africa, Kenya and Malawi.

Focusing on the social history of these tribes, the book addresses key issues such as: primitive law, crime, kinship structures, education, religion and women and how the impact of colonialism has affected them. It also asks the questions: Does an acceptable definition of the concept of 'tribe' exist? and What is meant by the 'social integration' of tribals?
