Kaylie Hart is no stranger to weirdness- she comes from a family of vampire hunters after all. But she's starting to live a normal life. Enrolled in college, a reluctantly supportive family, a cute boyfriend, and a quirky best friend- what more could she want?

But then a stranger enters her life. He's annoying and brazen, and he swears that he knows Kaylie even though they've never met. He insists that the life she sees around her isn't real. At first, she thinks he must be crazy. Of course her life is real. But then she starts to remember- she remembers a brutal attack on her family and she remembers falling in love with the mystery man.

Suddenly, she starts to see things for the first time and it becomes clear that she's stuck in an alternate world. A world where Kaylie gets to live a happy life with the people she loves, but also a world where she doesn't get to be with the love of her life.

Is Kaylie willing to risk the life she always wanted for the one person she can't live without?
