Ever wonder if God still works in lives of man today? I can tell you that He most certainly does! This collection of short stories will bring God's amazing love into sharp focus as each message touches a different part of your heart. No matter what your faith, or church background, these stories will put you back in touch with our amazing Creator and the wonderful love He has for each of us.

Join Toby as he teaches his friend John to look at others through the eyes of God in the story - "Worthy".

Approach the threshold with Sam as he seeks the face of God in the surprising tale - "Doors".

Rush towards your final goal with Charles and Troy as they find out the end result is not always the best part in - "The Destination".

Discover that the easier road is not always the best choice in - "The Desert".

Follow Trent as he makes his way home in the touching narrative - "How do I Love Thee".

Play with Jesus and His disciples on the sea shore and then join them as they reflect on the condition of man, in the simple message - "The Real Thing".

Travel with Chankra as she walks side by side with her greatest fear, as she desperately seeks a way to heal her broken marriage, in the jungle experience - "In the Name of Love".

Altogether 15 different ways to experience the inescapable love of God as you join others, just like you and me, as they search to find a closer relationship with each other and the one true God who loves them all.
