The Paranormal Tourist Guide to Gloucestershire - Book 1 Ross Andrews

This latest book in the Paranormal Tourist Guide series centres around Gloucestershire. Ross Andrews has used his extensive knowledge of local folklore and spook history to take us on a guided tour of haunted venues that you can visit and explore for yourselves. The Paranormal Tourist series tries to concentrate on paranormal venues that are accessible to the public, allowing you to go and investigate them and just as importantly report back to us, so that we can include your findings in the next book. This is book 1 of the Gloucestershire series, as it is impossible to make a book small enough to carry around on your investigation and include every ghost tale in the county, and if you are wondering the front cover is a picture of an excellent haunted venue - Berkeley castle, the scene of a rather grisly method of execution, but i will not spoil the surprise on the back cover, instead come on in and be sickened, scared, and spooked by Gloucestershires scariest tourist attractions. Ross Andrews - As an author he has written many books on the paranormal, appeared on TV and Radio as a paranormal investigator as well as contributed to many TV shows, and magazine articles on parapsychology. This is his second book in the Paranormal Tourist series having written the first London book. His ambition is to catalogue every haunting in his home county of Gloucestershire.
