Who Ever Said That Life Would Be Easy??? James grew up in the hood raised by his grandmother. James mother was in prison for killing his father, at least that's what he was told. James wanted nothing more in life then to get his mother out of prison. James grandmother had passed away and for the first time in his life he was by himself, all alone. So James started depending more on the streets to take care of him. James met this man name Benny and Benny put James where he wanted to be. James loved Benny like a son would love their father. It took Benny's death for James mother to tell him that Benny is his biological father. James didn't understand why his mother never told him, he was upset and furious with his mother but no love lost and it didn't stop him from breaking his promise to his mother, that is to one day get her out of prison. But what's beyond James face is bigger then that, James heart is not made of
