Angelic Whisper: Words of Wisdom and Inspirations in Today's Troubled World Hazel Catherine Salvana

People are born with the highest capability to do wonders and miracles. Our gifts and talents are unique. From the moment children are born, they are taught to share, love, respect, discipline, compromise, and play. When children grow into their adulthood, they juggle with families, marriage, children, friendships, neighbors, and work that become a part of our daily life and our world. Humans experience emotions of pain, jealousy, hatred, segregation, intimidation, and isolation because some people are angry or cruel. Juggling with our mundane habits, rituals, routines, and negative feelings can easily make us lose our focus on what is right and nurturing to ourselves and to our soul. Even though our lives are complex and challenging, each individual is never forgotten by angelic beings. These ethereal beings are kind, loving, counselors, and protectors. They have been with us from the moment each person entered into this world. They give us inspiration, motivation, comfort, and love. Some people call them guardian angels while others call them spirit guides. These angels and spirit guides are responsible for giving people the extra mile when they are too tired to go on with their life. It need not matter what religious organization or denomination a person belongs, angels and spirit guides have always stood with us side by side. Our faith is drawn earthly to possessions rather than knowing that human beings have been given the power to create miracles. People take for granted the miracles that they have done each day. Angels and spirit guides do not interfere with our life but lead us to the right path that is good and true. Either way, they are here and will always be here with us. They whisper in our ears words of wisdom and inspirations.
