All the Cats in the World Jesse Hunter

All the Cats in the World is a delightful gift of happiness to put a smile on any cat lover's face. Cute and uplifting, All the Cats in the World celebrates cats everywhere. With photographs from all around the world, it is a quirky take on cats happily ensconced in life everywhere on the planet. From Morocco to Norway, Africa to Asia, cats are living in a wide variety of lifestyles, from the cozy couches of living rooms in the US, to the rocky cliffs of Petra, Jordan. When Jesse and his partner, Mikala, set out on a global photographic adventure to frame the world in their own unique way, they formed collections of images which meant something to them, and one of these collections formed around the hundreds of beautiful feline friends they came across along the way. This book is a celebration of these intriguingly curious animals that hold a place in the hearts of people all over the world.
