Is it possible to love a stranger?

King Caside had lived the perfect life. As the latest in a long line of dragon shifters to rule County Cork, he had just been given the ultimate blessing, a MATE.

Anabelle was perfect in his eyes and the instant connection they felt for each other showed that love at first sight was definitely real. His new mate may have been the result of an arrangement but he would not have had it any other way.

However, when danger threatened the kingdom they both found their loyalties to each other were tested to the maximum and Caside was faced with choosing between his new mate and the safety of his people.

Something simply had to give...

If you love paranormal romances with lots of adventure and sensual scenes then this is the perfect book for you. Scroll up now and start reading right away!
