It deals with all aspects of the German Army's activities and gives an overall picture of the army and further lines of study for those who wish to delve more deeply into particular aspects of those activities. Why the German Army? In the 1939-45 war the German Army is of outstanding interest as a fighting force, its efficient organization and advanced technical achievements contrast vividly with the archaic horse-drawn equipment of many of its line infantry divisions. Its weapons show some, but by no means all of the reasons the German forces proved to be such a difficult opponent. The text is enhanced by over 100 photos and diagrams, including 4 full color pages.
