Thriller: End of Time

When Harry Willems was growing up, many things shaped the way that his life would go. Working in a shelter for the homeless, Harry is looking for answers. The amount of killings happening in this town is something that the Police department had learned to accept. These were violent times.

However, the killer was taking advantage of the fact that public finances didn't warrant the right kind of inquiries and that most cop time was spent finding the families of these Jane Doe characters, turning up in different parts of the town. Maiming and experimenting with the bodies of his live victims, the killer seeks answers to the greatest mysteries of his lifetime.

Can he find them before getting caught? With so much opportunity to learn about death and what people feel at that moment of death, the killer is trying to locate the right victim to show him what it is that he needs to know.
