The Wit and Wisdom of Yogi Berra Phil Pepe

Author Phil Pepe takes readers along on Yogi Berra's journey from St. Louis to New York's Yankee Stadium and Shea Stadium, including all the stops along the way--from his days as a tack-puller in a women's shoe factory, to a pre-game tribute in St.Louis, when he coined the phrase, "I want to thank all those that made this night necessary," to his induction into the Hall of Fame.

Phil Pepe explores Yogi Berra as a boy, player, hero, coach, manager, husband, and father, and jokester, including all of the 'Yogi-isms,' in an absorbing treatment that is simultaneously comical, thoughtful, and biographical.

Famous Yogi-isms:

- About a popular restaurant: "Nobody goes there anymore. It's too crowded."
- On Little League Baseball "I think it's wonderful. It keeps the kids out of the house."
- On why NY lost the 1960 series to Pittsburgh "We made too many wrong mistakes."
