THE WHITE HOUSE CONNECTION: New York: Late at night, the rain pouring down, a well-dressed woman in her sixties stands in a doorway, a gun in her purse, waiting for a Senator to come home. Washington, D.C.: The phone rings on the desk of Blake Johnson, head of the White House department known as The Basement. The President wants him now. London: The Prime Minister sits thinking of Sean Dillon, the one-time terrorist, now his most effective, if not exactly trusted, operative. It'll have to be Dillon, he thinks. There's no one else. Someone is killing off the members of a splinter group known as the Sons of Erin, normally not a cause for much concern, but the consequences are much greater than anyone realizes. For in these actions lie the seeds of disaster: the fall of two governments, the derailing of the Irish peace process. Dillon and Johnson must stop this unknown assassin, the heads of state agree, quickly, quietly, before all hell breaks loose... But they may already be too late. For in the Manhattan night, the silver-haired woman smiles, adjusts her rain hat more snugly on her head, and steps out into the street. Four down, she thinks. Three to go.

DAY OF RECKONING: When international crime boss Jack Fox orders that journalist Katherine Johnson be killed, he brings down the wrath of the dead woman's ex-husband: Blake Johnson, head of the covert White House department known as The Basement. Along with Sean Dillon, Johnson sets out for revenge, determined to bring Fox's empire of crime crashing down. They follow Fox's money trail around the globe, leaving the shreds of his business behind them. But Fox isn't known as a man to back away from a threat, and Johnson and Dillon know they're in for a fight unlike any they've faced before. Fox is unaccustomed to his enemies being so close on his heels, so he unleashes his own brand of revenge?brutal, swift, and deadly.
