Where would a crew be without their leader? That is the question everyone must ask. The crew has been cut off by the Russians, they are running out of product. The new hustler on the block, Sonny, is now being supplied by the Russians. He and his crew are on the fast track to take over the city.

During the turbulent times Antwan held the position of leader as best he could, but now Slim is home. After being attacked by the Italian mob, but surviving, Slim is released from prison to serve the rest of his six months on house arrest. It is all the charismatic and cunning leader needs to run his crew. To be around his people to call shots and to be around his woman Mari, who is pregnant with his child.

Skinny K is on the hunt for Whispers' killer. Standing in his way is a DEA agent hell bent on revenge. An agent who has been a thorn in the side of the crew. While Antwan wanted to take the cautious approach, Slim returns home and gives Skinny K the okay to do what he has to do to avenge his friend.

Mya goes into labor months early. She and Antwan lose their child. Mya is devastated and while everyone wonders what was the cause of her losing the baby, Antwan knows. It's a secret they have been carrying for a while, a secret that could possibly bring the crew down and turn friends into enemies.
